Public Comment Guidelines: The library seeks to provide an atmosphere that promotes equal opportunities and is free from all forms of discrimination or harassment. All those who wish to speak during the public comment period should adhere to the following guidelines:

- Speakers must be present at the beginning of the meeting and must sign in prior to the start of the meeting.
- Comment will be limited to 3 minutes per speaker, time is not allowed to be ceded to other speakers.
- The commenting period will be closed at the end of 30 minutes or at the conclusion of the last speaker present; whichever is first.
- When addressing the library trustees, please state your name and address.
- To preserve time for others who may wish to offer comment, please refrain from repeating information that has already been shared with the Library Trustees during the public comment period.
- Please practice civility and courtesy. The library trustees have both a right and a responsibility to maintain order and decorum during the meeting. Time may be altered for those whose comments are profane or disruptive. All attendees are subject to the library's Acceptable Behavior Policy.
- Comments that pertain to activities or performance of individual library employees shall not be discussed during public comments. Any employee concerns should be addressed with the Library Director at a later time.
- Library trustee members typically will not entertain questions or engage in dialogue with those providing comment in order to adhere to Idaho open meeting law.
