

CUPID'S TOWER

Supplies: candy hearts, paper, pipe cleaners
You might also need: glue, tape, scissors

Cupid was accidentally hit with a shrink ray! Now, tiny Cupid needs a tower to help him look for people to hit with his love arrows! your challenge is to build the highest candy heart tower possible.

Can you think of a way to use the supplies provided to support your tower? You can use other stuff from around the house, too, but your main tower must be made of candy hearts!
